Professional Personnel - Resignations and Retirement

Tenured teachers may resign at any time with consent of the School Board or by written notice sent to the Board Secretary at least 30 days before the intended date of resignation. However, no teacher, whether tenured or probationary, may resign during the school term in order to accept another teaching position without the consent of the Board. Any teacher who resigns their employment during the school term to accept another teaching position without the concurrence of the Board may be reported to the State Superintendent of Education.
