Superintendent's Report Good News:
School	Event	Explanation	Superintendent's Report
District	Donations	Rachel Schramm, the Community Outreach Coordinator from the Economic Community

		Development Agency for the City of Kankakee, has donated 200 Census maps to our district. The Census maps show population by state, average median age, average family size, and median income. There are two different maps, one is geared towards elementary students and the other is geared towards the older students.
Kennedy	Donations	Seven of Kennedy's teachers each were awarded $100 Meijer Gift Cards thanks to the Teacher's Back-to-School Appreciation Contest, sponsored by local radio stations. Teachers submitted their ideas on how they would use the money and were selected. Most reported that they will use these funds to purchase incentives to encourage and celebrate improved engagement.

- Mr. Yohnka, Mr. Pickett, Mr, Weigt, Ms. Strong, Tim Kowen, and Mr. Wilcox presented the Kays Media Proposal.
- Second Quarter Plan for 2020-2021 School Year:
 - Principals and Dr. Walters answered questions from the board and Facebook live regarding the 2nd quarter plans and levels of engagement.
- Food Service:
 - Ms. Botenstein discussed the partnership with No kids hungry and the purchase of a food truck. When the Food Truck is ready, it will serve the community, Culinary Arts Students, and concessions.
- Instruction:
 - Mrs. Hybert discussed the recent SAT Testing, along with the TNTP 5th quarter learning report.
- Finance:
 - Nothing was discussed.
- Personnel:
 - Dr. O'Connor discussed the positions that need to be covered as well as working on this year's evaluation tools.

Principal's Report
